Class and Spirit Make All-College Mixer Success

Contest, Frosh Humor, and Games Provide Entertainment

Class spirit, rivalry, and general exuberance prevailed at the annual all college Mixer, sponsored by the Student Council, last Thursday night at Carnegie gymnasium, which celebrated the occasion of the frosh donning their green.

Bill De Groot, Student Council president, and Thelma Kooiker, A.D.D. president, adorned Bill Tappan, frosh president, and Beth Marcus, frosh Student Council representative, respectively, in the traditional manner amidst much booing and cheering of the spectators.

The fine success of the Mixer may be directly attributed to the combined efforts of Ruth Van Popering, general chairman of the affair, Don Kramer and his "Campus Cats," Dean Dykstra, master of ceremonies, and Bob Bonthius, who was the surprise hit of the evening when he rendered "Small Fry" in the swing manner which college students love.

President Speaks

President Wichers took the opportunity to advise the freshman class as to how to make the most of their college years. Loyalty, mutual confidence, democracy, good sportsmanship, and constructive efforts, were some of the qualities stressed as essential to success. Prexy counseled, "Make yourselves a part of the college as soon as possible and know all the people you can. Select your friends for personal worth rather than social background. Remember that the three graces, Good Sense, Sincerity, and Simplicity are the great factors in character building."

The evening's entertainment opened with an informal autograph game which admirably served the purpose of getting acquainted. Norma Becksford and Bill Gannon emerged victorious from the contest and were awarded a little grey kitten and a tin horn for their efforts.

Classes Entertain

Don Kramer's "Eleven Kittens with Their Horns" rendered "Now It Can Be Told" as the first number on the program, with Jack Jalving, sophomore blonde tenor, vocalizing. The sophomore class then demonstrated their dramatic talents in an opus entitled "The Fatal Quest."

Ken Pelgrim presented a treatise on the Status of College Life in behalf of the senior class. Jean Hoekje wrote a hilarious sketch on "Our Freshmen," which introduced Fritz Bertsh as "Flat Foot Floogie," Gordon Pleune as the typical country yokel, Ken Miller as Sally Vander Rand and Rose Teninga as the "Date Girl," and Edie Dibble as a trombone enthusiast.

Don Kramer furnished an unexpected treat when he played Fred Waring's theme song, "Sleep," and Duke Ellington's "Blue Prelude" on his new, beautiful sounding vibraphone.

Frosh Give Skit

Not to be outdone, the freshman class displayed their ability to entertain in an amusing play, "The Lamp Went Out." Great furor ensued when the tables were turned to reveal a large "42." Ken Vandenberg, frosh pull captain, then made a touching speech to the sophomore pull captain, Bob Dykstra, and presented him with the necessary equipment to cross the Black River on foot. Dykstra, however, stalked to the microphone and warned the frosh that the sophomores have just as much assurance of their success on Friday afternoon.

The evening closed with Bill De Groot, football captain, introducing the team to the college. Marty Bekken and Jay Witte led some rousing cheers for the team, and Jack Schouten made the evening complete with an informal talk about the team. The climax was the singing of the Hope song and partaking of refreshments.

Senior Practice Teachers Begin Observing Work

Undoubtedly you have noticed some of Hope's illustrious seniors scurrying hither and yon from the campus. For your information, these are practice teachers, who, at present, are observing in their required grade or subject and will be teaching within a few weeks.

The elementary teachers are as follows: Angeline Dornbos and Hester Soeters at Longfellow school; Thelma Kooiker, Edith Smith, and Katherine Van Raalte at Washington School; Alice Munroe, Beatrice Fairbanks, and Lydia De Vries at Van Raalte School; and Cornelius Hoezee at Lincoln School.

The secondary teachers are as follows: In the Junior High, Peter Stielstra, George Hyma, Jean MacNeil, Marjorie Vyverberg, John Wybenga, William Heeringa; in the Senior High, Jacoba Dalebout, Loraine Pomp, Margaret Bergen, Mildred Kirkwood, Margaret Allen, Jay Van Hoven, John Justema, Margaret Laman, Orville Beattie, and Marinus Pott.

TO VOORHEES WE GO

Everyone is cordially invited to attend Open House at Voorhees Hall following the Hope-Grand Rapids Junior college football game this week Friday, October 7.

Benefits of Morning Chapel Explained To All Hope's Freshmen

This article is especially written for the newcomers on Hope's campus, to explain our chapel customs. Of course, chapel does start promptly at eight o'clock every morning. The exercises are usually in charge of one professor. Every Tuesday chapel is led by officers of the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. and special music is provided.

Quite often we are privileged to hear some prominent speaker who is available. The chapel choir plays a valuable part in leading the singing and in presenting special music. At the last chapel of the year, scholastic and athletic honors are awarded.

UNEXPECTED SERENADE RENDERED DORM GIRLS

The night of the All-College Mixer turned out to be a big night, what with the sophomores sending the frosh down the fire escape, and then an impromptu serenade by the Fraternities. Loud fire-crackers drew the Voorheesites to all the court windows, where they were entertained. Much enjoyment was had by all, and the girls are looking forward to more serenades in the near future.

Bitter Enemies Meet Next Friday Over Black River for Annual Pull

A tug-of-war, a fight to the river, a struggle of the classes, a—in other words, the annual pull between the freshmen and the sophomores, is just around the corner, and if one turns left on Thursday he'll come to the Black river on Friday.

Two spirited classes renew the rivalry of the lower classmen on October 7 when they face each other across the cold waters of the river north of town. Here, late in the afternoon, the decision of the strongest, best-coached team is made when one weary, blistered squad gets a cold bath by being dragged through the muddy waters to meet their conquerors across the way.

Aiding the brawn of either class will be the beauties who attempt to see that their support is more than moral, by dousing the perspiring teams with water and stuffing their mouths with lemon, sugar, and such energy-providing foods. Many a heart is won by the care given during this trying time—freshmen take note.

Lining up as cheering sections

Fraternities End Rushing Season Announce Pledge

Be sure to read "So You Pledged," a student editorial well worth your time and of especial interest to freshmen men.

Closing a two-week rushing period Friday, September 30, Hope's four fraternities extended bids to their rushees. Although replies were due at the college office by noon Monday, October 3, Dr. R. Shackson, interfraternity faculty advisor, reports that all answers have not yet been received. The latest available report was released yesterday afternoon; the following men have accepted their bid:

To Cosmopolitans

To Emersonians

Science Students To Hear Talk By Dr. John Hapler

Announcement was made today that Dr. John M. Hapler of Michigan Department of Health will address all students interested in science and health on Monday, October 7 at 3:30 P. M. in Mr. Hilmer's room. Dr. Hapler's topic is "Science and its Prevention of Occupational Diseases." The science department, under Professor Kleis, is sponsoring Dr. Hapler's talk here and invites a large turnout of students hear this timely and instructive lecture.

Frosh vs. Soph

Year's Forensic Program Planned

At the annual meeting of the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League held on the campus of Michigan State college last Friday, the faculty and student representatives from the various colleges and universities of Michigan arranged a complete schedule of forensic activities for the coming year.

First, in order of priority, will come the extempore speaking contest on November 22. At this contest, which will be held at Western State Teachers college, the men must speak on subjects related to "The Economic and Political Isolation of the United States," or "National Minorities."

The women may choose to speak on either "Socialized Medicine" or "The United States and the European Situation." A local contest will be held on our campus in the very near future to determine Hope's representatives to the state contest.

Debate Question Chosen

The question selected for both men and women to debate this year is: "Resolved, that the United States should cease to use public funds, including credit, for the purpose of stimulating business." All the men and women interested in debate will be called out very soon to prepare for a full year of debating. The state tournament for men will be held at Michigan State college on February 10 and the women's tournament will be conducted at Western State Teachers college on February 17. Many other intercollegiate debates are also being scheduled.

The oratorical contest will be held at Calvin college on March 3 this year. The orator selected last year, Dean Dykstra, will represent Hope at that contest. The peace contest will occur on April 14 at Central States Teachers college.

All those interested in interpretative reading must be prepared to read two selections within a five-minute time limit this year. The interpretative reading contest will be conducted at Kalamazoo college on May 5.

Round-table Groups

An innovation which will probably become very popular in speech work will be introduced this year in the form of round-table discussion groups. Representatives from various colleges will gather in groups and discuss in a conciliatory rather than an argumentative manner various national and international problems.

This schedule will provide a full year for all those interested in forensic activity. Hope college has always been active in forensics and has won many honors in the intercollegiate activity. An opportunity to participate in forensic work is given all students who care to develop their speaking ability.

Those representing Hope at the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League Friday included Dr. Rolland Shackson, Don Van Liere, Orville

Tappan Heads Frosh; Shuptrine, McGregor Are Other Officers

The freshman class held an important meeting last Thursday for the purpose of electing several of their number to be leaders of the class of '42 and of campus life for the school year.

Bill Tappan, of Holland, is to lead his class as president. Jean Shuptrine, also of Holland, was elected to the duties of secretary-treasurer. The class chose Bob McGregor to fill the position of vice-president. Beth Marcus, of Holland, and Blase Levai, of Passaic, New Jersey, have taken up their duties of student council representatives for their class. Ken Vandenberg will captain the freshman fellows in the annual pull across Black River.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Heading the senior class this year as its president is Bob Wishmeier. Ollie Lampen assists him in the capacity of vice-president. As secretary the class chose James Hallan, and Harold Leestma will serve as treasurer.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

At a recent meeting the junior class chose members of their group for the leadership of the class during this year. Dean Dykstra was elected president. The combined duties of secretary and treasurer fell to the lot of Martha Morgan. Ruth Van Popering is to be vice-president.

Paul Bethka steps forward as president of this year's sophomore class. To assist him are: Ruth De Young, vice-president; Mary Bolesma, secretary; and Henry Voogd, treasurer.

Fifty Students Plan To Form German Club

Fifty prospective members of a German club to be formed under the name "Der Deutsche Verein" are looking forward to the German singing, games, and entertainments which are to be part of the club's program for the year. Under the direction of Miss Boyd and the advanced German classes, plans for its complete organization are being carefully made. All those who have completed one year of college German or its equivalent are eligible for membership.

Women Participate In W.A.A. Breakfast Hike Held Saturday Morning

The athletically-minded women of the college left Voorhees Hall on Saturday morning, bright and early, for a breakfast hike. It was sponsored by the W.A.A. under the leadership of Catherine Marcle.

The four-mile furnished the scene for the activities and the breakfast which the girls cooked over a camp-fire was delicious and plentiful. More activities of this kind are planned for the future, and it is hoped that an increasing number will participate.

Band Receives Praise

At the second football game of the season the Hope college band proved to be one of the highlights of the evening. With their excellent music, their formations, and their splendid uniforms, all Hopeites were extremely proud of them.

This year, according to one of its members, the band has approximately doubled in size with a total enrollment of forty members.

Plans are also being made by which our band may travel to Kalamazoo for the Hope-Kalamazoo game.

The one aim of all its members is to make "Hope band, a better band," said Cornie Steketee, director.

The Women's Athletic Association will in the near future give a Roller Skating Party. A city block will be roped off and it will be an all-college affair. The date will be scheduled when Jack Schouten makes the final arrangements.

Hine, Mildred Mulder and Theodora Meulendyke. This league is composed of the various colleges and universities of Michigan.

Nafe, Wishmeier, Chairmen, Plan For Homecoming

All-College Banquet Will End Crowded Day's Program

The program for the 1938 homecoming week-end of October 22 is already well under way under the direction of co-chairmen Genne Nafe and Bob Wishmeier.

A general welcome is planned for the alumni on Friday, but the highlight of the day comes with the evening parade of floats and the succeeding meeting of pep around the bonfire. House and dormitory decorations will be additional campus attractions. Cliff Marcus, Bob Bonthius, and Virginia Ellison are in charge of the open-air meeting while co-chairmen Nafe and Wishmeier will direct the parade. The bonfire is also the occasion for the award of float and house prizes.

On Saturday morning society breakfasts and fraternity stags will be arranged in honor of the alumni.

A parade of the college band and organization floats will lead the way to the football field for the game with Alma on Saturday afternoon. Traditional freshman field activities provide entertainment during the fifteen minutes between the halves. Following the game the fraternities will open their houses to all students and alumni.

The all-college banquet, which will be held at seven on Saturday evening, will serve as a finale to the events of the week-end. Music, fun and entertainment are promised for the occasion under the management of Gordon Pleune, Dean Dykstra, Margaret Allen and Peg Bergen. Bill Jacobs, John Olert, Kit Van Raalte, and Mildred Mulder are making arrangements for the banquet proper.

Other committees are underway on plans for the week-end. The campus decorations are in charge of Jimmie Hallan and Jean Hoekje. Betsy Race, Mary Frelick and Marjorie Mulder will take care of the outside decorations for Voorhees Hall, and Dorothy Bonga, Caroline Kremers, Margaret Nagy and Ruth Vander May will work on the inside.

The field decorations are in charge of Althea Raffenaud, Harold Leetsma, Dave De Pree and Lucille Kardux.

Decorations for the banquet are in the hands of Gerty Visscher, Martha Morgan, Bob Vandenberg and Don Saeger.

Jack Schouten, Bob Dykstra, Bill Tappan and Mr. Leon Moody will direct the freshman field activities. The publicity committee consists of Cornie Steketee, Bob Powers, Bob Taft, Dorothy Vandenberg and Teddy Meulendyke.

Anchor Room Moved To Education Bldg.

Because of crowded library conditions resulting from the successful book drive of last spring the Anchor was forced to move its quarters from the basement of Van Raalte Hall to a room in the Education building.

Thirty-three candidates for positions on the staff turned out at the first meeting of the year. In order to cut the staff down to a number of good writers, Rose Teninga, editor, plans to conduct a series of Anchor classes on alternating Saturday mornings. One of these classes will include a trip through the printing plant in order to acquaint the staff with the conditions under which the Anchor goes to press.

At the end of this series of lectures all candidates will take a test and those receiving the highest rating will be placed on the staff.

"In this way, it is hoped," stated Miss Teninga, "that the Anchor will be able to give you a better college paper than preceding years and still keep our expenses down so that we will not upset our budget."

So You Pledged

In another section of today's paper appear the choices of fraternity made by you, the new men of Hope's student body. The selection you have made is an important one in your collegiate life; for your fraternity will be either an enriching experience or a restricting one; either an ever-broadening avenue to greater enjoyment of your four years here or an ever-narrowing road towards the dissipation of this valuable college experience. Of course you desire your new-found brotherhood to make life fuller for you; yet it is up to you, individually, to desire which part your chosen fraternity is to play.

A fraternity, by definition, is "a body of men associated for their common pleasure"; in other words, a fraternity is an instrument, or means, of enjoying common interests and friends: an avenue, so to speak, to a fuller college life. But all too often fraternity's real meaning is lost as the "pledge," excitedly enthusiastic over this new experience, invests his ALL in the society. In doing this he sells out his shares of Enriching Collegiate Experience. For the true perspective is lost and the fraternity, per se, is viewed as the one and only END of interest, instead of one of the several MEANS of obtaining greater benefit from undergraduate life. Almost unrealizingly are built, upon this grave error, interests and friendships circumscribed by the fraternity affiliation. And such a mistake is as ruinous as it is insidious. For all too often the error is not realized until after the four years are past and, in smug complacency, the society zealot is graduated, not from a college, but from a fraternity: for he knows little but his own group. Yet he has missed the great opportunities to gain a truly liberal education and to make friends; the loss of these leaves him with, not a rounded, but a sort of two-dimensional college-experience.

This editorial is addressed to you, the new fraternity men, with the one desire of stimulating you to an evaluation of your fraternity in terms of its relative place in your college life. As has been intimated, the fraternity is one of the subordinate parts of the institution, and its function is that of "an avenue" to fuller undergraduate living. But there are other "avenues," also, for you to travel: those of religious participation, athletic endeavor, forensic activity, musical essaying, and other roads. All have contributions to make to you, as a growing personality. Is it not wise, yea essential, that you make good use of several of them; for your ultimate growth is dependent upon a three-dimensional development: intellectual, social, and spiritual. Assume the true perspective of your fraternity's position: one avenue of development.

Fraternity friendships are a subordinate part of the campus brotherhood. The fraternity man who lives up to his title is tolerant and friendly towards all. Is it not wise to make friends both in and out of the society? To restrict your friendships in any way is to dwarf your collegiate experience.

The selection you have made is, indeed, an important one; and, like every great decision, it brings in new problems to solve. What part will your fraternity play in your life here? Will it benefit you or hamper you? Think on these things. And may the outcome of your thought lead to the construction of a greater personality.

DISCOUNT TO ALL STUDENTS

Several students around the campus have been inquiring into the possibility of having a poetry column. We will gladly accept any and all original pieces of poetry written by Hope students or professors, and hope in the near future to have this column as a regular feature of the paper.

Offerings can be humorous or serious and may be placed in the Anchor room on the second floor of the Columbia building. They should be signed but the signature need not be printed if the writer does not wish it to be printed.

Vogue Sponsors Contest; Senior Girls Are Eligible

The senior women of the campus are eligible to enter Vogue Magazine's fourth annual Prix de Paris fashion contest. Entrants have to answer five questions and write a thesis on a designated topic.

And what will the lucky winner receive? First prize winner is offered a year's employment on the staff of Vogue; six months to be spent in the New York office, and six months in the Paris office.

Further information can be obtained from The Anchor editor or Dean Lichty.

Let the Sparks Fly

Students: This is your column and your chance to air your ideas, be they grudges or bouquets. All letters are welcome and the best are printed.

Dear Editor: * * *

Last Friday night I was completely disgusted in the game against Albion. The team belongs to the school, not to the coach. Things might have been different if the students would have had more school spirit, the team might have won. It is true, the yells are not of the best, but at least God gave us a mouth to yell with.

The high school I attended had 100 girls as a cheering section, a girls' drum and bugle corps and a band. When a player came on the field he knew he was playing for the couple thousand students and not for his fun or not only the coach. The crowd yells to let him know this. How can a player play his best when nobody is pulling or cheering for him?

Another thing, everybody can't forget that so and so belongs to this or that fraternity; therefore he receives no backing from the students who are not in favor of his frat.

I recommend that everybody cooperate and get some new yells and take the old ones and print them and give each student a copy so he can really show he or she is a true blooded Hopeite.

WEATHER NOTE: THIS IS THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN ALL NATURE changes from green to brown, except the species HOPEUS FRESHMANUS, which has just the opposite inclination!

This is the time, too, to air for the benefit of the freshmen that old college superstition: It's unlucky to borrow your roommate's clothes—if he's bigger than you are.

PICK-UP:

Ask a girl to talk—
If she's talkative.
Ask a girl to walk—
If she's walkative.
Ask a girl to dance—
If it's permissible.
But never ask to kiss her—
If she's kissable.

Cornie Steketee has a new car. It runs a little, then stops, runs a little, and stops again. A spurt model.

Dr. De Moore, however, has a Chevrolet, and a nice one, too. Although we can hardly see what good it's going to do him if he keeps locking himself out of it as he did on the second day of school! (Absent-minded professor joke No. 5,674!)

Two freshmen met on the campus last week and the following dialogue took place:

*Hi, kid, watcha know?
Don't know it. Watcha gonna say?*

Can't say it. Howya doin'?

Ain't been doin' it. How ya feelin'?

Ain't been feelin' like it. Howya been?

Ain't been up to it.

Well g'bye.

G'bye.

(O.K. then, don't take our word for it—ask any sophomore.)

CUTEST TRICK OF THE WEEK: The freshman presenting Bob Dykstra, sophomore pull-captain, with rubber boots and a life preserver. Second cutest trick of the week: Freshman Betsy Race, of Herkimer, N. Y., who wants to know why the freshman girls don't have "big brothers," instead of "big sisters."

Two heads are better than one—specially when you're tossing a coin!

The English department raved about the awful slang of the modern generation, but we just laughed and laughed and laughed, because we knew that Elizabeth Barrett Browning wrote a poem called "The Dead Pan."

REVISING THE POPULAR SONGS:

1. For the movie fan—"I'll be Don Ameche in a taxi, honey."
2. For the tired father—"Come to me, my yellow colic baby."
3. For the fisherman with the one that DIDN'T get away—"Small Fry."

LOGICAL INTERVIEWS: NUMBER I

"Yes," shouted the Voorhees senior above the rhythmic blare of the radio and the chatter of the eight visitors in her room, "I'm staying in tonight to get some real studying done—careful, don't sit on the potato chips. And," she added virtuously, "I've really decided to get some decent marks this year. Oh, excuse me a minute; I've got to go and talk to my honey. I promised to call him up every fifteen minutes tonight . . ."

Revise your vocabulary with these:

POINTSETTIA—A hunting dog.

PUNT—Something essential, as in "I don't see the punt."

POISE—Something in which to put money.

YAWL—Southern form of the second person pronoun.

CONVEY—Desiring permission, such as, "Convey have late per tonight, Miss Litcity?"

Shakespeare had a word, or words for everything. Even collyms. In TWELFTH NIGHT he said, "Better a witty fool than a foolish wit."

Just what does that make us?

Roberta Rawson, better known as "Bobbie" here on Hope's campus, was taken to the Holland hospital Tuesday, September 27, where she was operated upon for appendicitis. Friends who have visited the patient report her condition as improving rapidly.

Always an active figure in campus life, Roberta's pals have many interesting plans afoot to aid her in her period of convalescence. Her sister Delphians have planned to make up Sunshine Boxes, one to be taken to her each day by two members. The idea is that "a surprise a day keeps the doctor away." Flowers and other gifts will be sent by others of her friends.

Dates Drawn For "Get Acquainted" Society Parties

At the last regular meeting of the Pan Hellenic, lots were drawn as to the dates for the parties for all new girls. Each society will give one party in Voorhees Hall. The expenses are not to exceed $20. Alethean drew the first week, Dorian the second, Delphi the third, Sorosis the fourth, and Sibylline the fifth.

Angeline Dornbos was elected secretary-treasurer of this organization. Miss Ross and Miss Boyd were re-elected as sponsors.

The Pan Hellenic will meet every other Monday night, alternating with the Alcor.

C.W.L. Hears Dr. Moore Speak As Season Opens

The Christian Worker's league held its first meeting of the semester Friday, September 30, at 4 o'clock. Devotions were in charge of Heath Goodwin, vice-president of the league. Albert Shiphorst, accompanied by Harriet Lemkuil, sang "At the End of the Road."

The speaker of the afternoon was Rev. B. J. Moore, a Presbyterian missionary from Japan. The title of his inspiring address was "Cast Not Away Your Confidence." He brought out the thought that we can put no confidence in material things because they will fail us.

The new officers are: President, Henry Bovendam; vice-president, Heath Goodwin; secretary, Eloise Boynton; treasurer, Ruth Knickel.

Music Notes

Mr. Osborne will give an organ recital on Sunday afternoon, October 9, at 4 o'clock. The following numbers will be played:

"Prelude, Fugue, and Chaconne" by Buxtehude; "Toccata per l'Elezione" by Frescobaldi; "Cathedral Prelude and Fugue" by Bach; "Symphony Chorale" by Ach; "Bleib Mit einer Gnade" by Karg-Elert; "Ronde Francaise" by Boellmann; "Hraume (Tristan and Isolde)", Wagner; "Sonata da Chiesa" by Andriessen.

Tryouts for Men's Glee Club took place last night.

The choir performed their first number in the chapel services this morning singing "Finlandia" by Sibelius.

A great deal of material was shown in the Girls' Glee Club tryouts also for the Fenton Scholarship for men. Winners will be announced in the next Anchor.

The Chapel Choir has entered its harness and is busily at work. Enthusiasm and interest on the part of all the new members as well as the old is forming a promising outlook for the Choir this year.

Election of officers was held last Thursday. The following officers were elected: President, Al Shiphorst; vice president, Lois Voorhorst; secretary, Beatrice Fairbanks; treasurer, Bob Vegter; manager, Clifford Keizer.

SOCIAL LIFE LINES by Ruth Van Popering

DORIAN

The setting sun's long fingers touched the brilliant autumn tree, Painting e'en more glorious still That bit of heav'n for me.

Just such a picture was brought to the mind's eye of the Dorian literary society on Wednesday evening, September 28. After the business meeting members were taken through a forest of bright-hued autumn trees by Nelvie Vanderbilt, who was in charge of the program for that week.

Beneath a "Tree of Heaven," Hulda Rigtterink opened with devotions, after which some old songs, beloved in any season, were sung. Then Emily Bielefeld read an appropriate short story. The strains of "September in the Rain," sung by Nelvie Vanderbilt, were heard from the shade of a weeping willow tree. While enormous red apples were being munched, the wind in the old moaning pine made a spooky background for the ghost story told in the candlelight by Ruth DeYoung.

ALETHEAN NEWS

On Wednesday night the Aletheans met in their room, which has recently been cleaned and rearranged, for an important business meeting. Reports were made by the representatives to the various organizations and a general outline of the coming activities was given.

Plans were arranged for the party which is to be given for the freshmen and new girls next Thursday evening at Voorhees hall. There being no definite program planned, an informal time was enjoyed by the members, which closed with a number of rousing and peppy songs.

DELPHI

Last Wednesday evening Delphi roses, rosy-cheeked from a summer of recreation, met in a rose arbor wearing rose-colored glasses, to be spectators to a program entitled "The One Rose," under the direction of vice-president Lois Voorhorst. The soil was cultivated by Delphian Van Raalte, who read the parable of the Sower. Sunshine was added by Delphian Boven in a beautifully rendered piano selection. Delphian Marley froze the Rosebuds with a humorous paper which was very much all wet. Delphian Voorhorst impressively read the creed and explained its true significance. "Remember Rose" was the title applied to a musical skit enacted by Delphians Morgan and Potter. Delphian Potter sang a clever parody of "Remember Me." In conclusion the "Last Rose of Summer" was brought once again from the rose bowl as several Delphians reviewed experiences of the past summer.

The previous week Delphians had unofficially opened their social season with a slumber (more or less) party at the Boven cottages. Since they succeeded in arriving at convocation on time and in good order, they feel prepared to start another big year, full of fun, friendships, and frequent studying (of course).

SOROSIS SOCIETY

Sigma Sigma held a business meeting as their second meeting of the year. Margaret Allen, president, and Lorraine Pomp, Pan-Hellenic representative, presented more detailed plans of the non-rushing system. Peg Bergen, secretary, read the constitution, according to the tradition of the society.

Trudy Visscher was appointed float chairman for Homecoming, though the rest of the committee has not as yet been named. Student Council plans for Homecoming were discussed and Gladys Van Lare was placed in charge of the entertainment of the Sorosis alumni for Homecoming.

The meeting was adjourned with the singing of the Sorosis songs.

COSMOPOLITAN SOCIETY

Monday evening, with rushing activities in full swing, a fine program was enjoyed at the Cosmopolitan House. Gord Vanden Brink sang several numbers; Cliff Marcus provided some of his super-subtle wit, and Bill Jacobs read an admirable and informative serious paper on William Randolph Hearst. Refreshments and an informal gathering climaxed a most enjoyable evening.

On Wednesday evening, members of the freshman class were again the guests of Cosmos. Harold Leestma, motivated by the critical situation caused by the Czech-German crisis, reviewed United States policies during the last World War in a paper entitled "Woodrow Wilson and His Ideals." Jim Adams and Bob Vander Laan, as loony a pair of buck privates as ever went on parade, with Mal Baron as sergeant, faced through a war scene in which the enemy was finally put out of action with a few lusty pumps of a flit gun. Cye Voogd, accompanied on the piano by Cliff Keizer, slid the doors shut on the program with a trombone solo. Refreshments and bull sessions occupied the remainder of the night.

On Friday night, despite the Albion victory over Hope, a hungry and spirited crowd milled through the Cosmo house, emptying the cider jug and the cake tins.

At intervals throughout the week, informal meetings were held, featuring that incomparable fire-eater, Bob Vander Laan, arsonist extra-special, who nearly singed his vocal cords, and may soon be having a fire sale.

The rushing season is over, but regardless of fraternity connections, many new friendships have been formed, and many good times enjoyed.

FROSH OPEN TONIGHT; VARSITY PLAYS FRIDAY

Frosh To Battle Tough Alma Club at Park Tonight

Outstanding Yearlings to Mix in Tussle at Local Stadium

Coach Jack Schouten's 1938 edition of the freshman football team will make its bow to the students and gridiron fans of Holland tonight. The coming-out party is scheduled for 8 p. m. at Riverview Park under the lights.

For the last two weeks, Coach Schouten has been whipping his squad into shape with favorable results. Backfield material has been plentiful, and the squad is the largest to report in the history of the school. The frosh will exhibit a fast charging line of average weight.

The lack of reserve strength is the only cloud evident on the sky for tomorrow night's game, for reports are that the new Alma frosh coach, Hank Lowe, formerly of St. Joe high, has a squad of sixty boys working under him. Out of the aggregation, he ought to be able to pick a team with plenty of strength, and have reserves in abundance.

As the teams meet tonight, Hope will put on display a promising quartet of backs. Bud Morgan, Herkimer, N. Y. boy, will be at the quarterback post. Most frequently he will call the signal of Loren Brinninger, former Allegan high boy, to run, pass or punt. Brinninger with Ted Cimock, Jackson high school star, will be at the halfback posts tonight. Bob Brown of Ionia has shown the driving power needed at the position to carry the vote for the job.

Ray Meyers, Grand Rapids; Bud Ferris, Shelby; and Ed De Pree, Holland, are boys who will get into the contest for plenty of backfield action.

Tonight's starting lineup will probably see Al Borr, Zealand, and Tom Slager, Muskegon, at the ends. Dick Hanson, Alma transfer, and Ward Toner, Shelby, will be at the tackles. Bill Hakken, former Grand Rapids all-city choice, and Bill Gannon of Fremont, will be at the guards, flanking Bill Tappan of Holland at center.

Linemen sure of action are Roy Alder, Gil Van Wieren, Less Wallace, Gerald Gilmore, Perry Dingman, Jimmy White, Bill Van Oss and Elmer Brandt.

In scrimmage the frosh have made good showings against varsity men, but the yearlings still lack the perfection that experience will bring later in the season.

Following the Alma game the frosh are slated to meet Grand Rapids Junior College's first game men here in another night game. The local boys will play games at Albion and Kalamazoo early in November.

Hope Wins; Loses in Opening Games of Gridiron Year

The football season is well under way, and Hope college has a .500 record. The Dutch opened with a housing 20-0 triumph over Ferris Institute of Big Rapids Sept. 23, and last Friday night lost in the opener of the Michigan Intercollegiate schedule to Albion, 3-0.

In both games, Hope showed power enough to threaten any team in the conference this year.

In the opener, Hope opened the contest by letting the Ferris boys strike for a pair of first downs, but a moment later the white-shirted lads took the ball, and used just three plays to score the first touchdown. Brannock made the last lap on a 28-yard cut-back. The goal was missed.

Brannock set the stage for a second-period touchdown with a 45-yard jaunt down the sidelines to the Ferris 16-yard line. After a first down, Marcus passed to Brannock over the goal for the score. Once more the kick was bad.

For the third quarter touchdown, Hope recovered a Ferris fumble on the Ferris 10-yard line, and after two plays, Vander Laan plunged over the goal. The kick was low.

Coach Bud Hinga's crew seemed ready for another touchdown in the fourth quarter when Vander Laan carried the ball to a first down on the four yard line. Ferris held for downs, however. As LeSeney attempted to punt from behind his own goal, Ken Honholt raced in to tackle him for a safety, and two more points.

Scoring was not so easily accomplished in the second game of the season—the opening game of the M.I.A.A. season, with Albion. In the first quarter, an aggressive Albion club caught Hope flat-footed in Dutch territory, and Callahan, 200-pound tackle, drop-kicked a field goal from the 18-yard marker. The goal was the margin of victory.

In the second quarter, teams played more evenly, and throughout the second half, Hope outplayed Albion. Twice Hope was within striking distance, but each time scoring plans were blasted.

In the third quarter, a steady march to Albion's 18-yard line set the stage for Marcus to pass over the goal line. Gies, Albion center, intercepted it, and stopped the drive.

Within a few minutes, Hope was again ready to score, and this time a place kick by Houtman was blocked. Passes throughout the fourth quarter failed to click.

SPORTING JOTS

By Bob Wishmeier

A recent magazine article took pains to describe the various football abilities of one Ernie Lain. . . Evidently he is the Two-Ton Tony of the gridiron. . . At any rate, his 230 pounds is just 40 pounds more than the heaviest of Hope's football material. . . That is, unless Palmer Martin is proven eligible as this is written. . . Martin left Hope as a "skinny" sophomore two years ago, and the other day showed up with a pair of shoulders as broad as the beam on a Fall river flat boat. . . He tips the scale at 212. . . His arrival recalls the work of his brothers, Dean in football, and Don in track. . . Don broke three records at the M.I.A.A. track and field meet in 1937. . .

Tonight, the freshmen are opening their football season. . . For the first year in the history of the club, the team has but one Hollander in the starting lineup. . . He is Bill Tappan, who, besides being center on the freshman club, is president of his class. . . He, with Morris Tardiff, scored perfect scholastic records in Holland high school. . . Robert Ferris, frosh back, was never assigned to block in his high school football days at Shelby. . . Ted Cimock of Jackson, freshman, never carried the ball during his senior year. . . Incidentally, Bob Vander Laan, regular varsity quarterback, carried the ball or passed on every play during his senior year at Union high in Grand Rapids. . . Cimock was medalist in the state high school golf tournament two years ago and runner-up a year ago. . . Loren Brinninger of Allegan has 15 prep athletic letters. . .

In the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association, directors last week kept the wires hot. . . Both Olivet and Adrian petitioned to be allowed to play freshmen, because varsity material was too scarce to warrant playing regular games. . . Rather than call all games with the schools this year invalid, directors voted for a three-year rule. . . It reads that the schools can play the freshmen, but that the boys will be ineligible for play during their senior year. . .

The football often has some hot political discussions, Jay Van Hoven holding up the Democratic arguments. . . When newly-appointed Athletic Board Secretary Bruce M. Raymond brought home Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg's latest campaign story, Murphy Man Van Hoven took a beating. . . Said Sen. Vandenberg, "We don't want people in this state government whose pores expand in sympathy every time the president perspires. . ."

Committee Revises Pull Rules To Insure Well Run Contest

Sophomores, freshmen and tradition will again hold sway this year, in the famed and furious pull across Black River. Rumor has it that the river is unusually high and cold, making it a highly unpleasant spot to linger in. Combining this with a large amount of class spirit should produce a roaring fight to stay dry.

Last year's struggle was a tummy-wrencher, lasting nearly two hours, the frosh emerging defeated and very democratic in appearance. It was a great battle, however, and one that this year's frosh will find hard to duplicate, with the exception of the defeat.

In an effort to keep the pull within a reasonable time limit, the rules were somewhat changed, and several judges added to the executive list. The event is intended to proceed as follows: A whistle signal will warn the teams to prepare to dig in. One minute later another signal will begin five minutes of digging in, which will be followed by a five-minute rest. Then, one minute after another warning signal the pull will begin, both teams pulling from their holes for fifteen minutes. At the end of this period, a one-minute rest will precede the final pulling, which has to be done in a standing position to the end. Any man who does not remain in a standing position after his team has stood up will be taken from the rope. If the frosh win the scrap they will not have to pot to sophomores.

Captain for the sophomore team will be Bob Dykstra, for the frosh, Ken Vandenberg, with coaches Gord Pleune and Don Cordes, respectively. The feminine bearers of mercy, water and oranges, and the committees serving to make the event a bigger and better one will be: sophomore, Jean Wishmeier, chairman; Ruth Stryker, Marthene Van Dyke, Margaret Bilkert, Marion Tysse, Phyllis Newcastle, Ruth Klassen, Doris Van Lente, Mary Ruth Jacobs, Tess Van Dyke, and Helen Fairbanks. The freshmen girls will be Betty Race, Mary Frelick, Janet Shiptrime, Beth Marcus, Jean Price, Peg Hadden, Ruth Williams, June Baker, Betty Donaherty, and Donna Zwemer.

List MIAA Tilts for Second Week

Olivet	0	1	0	.000
Adrian	0	1	0	.000

The Michigan Intercollegiate football season is under way.

Already teams have taken places in standings, but as yet it has been impossible to make any predictions or statements as to the relative strength of the teams in the conference. Kalamazoo is defending champion; Albion and Hope appear to be strong; Alma is the favorite challenger, and a hunch chooses Hillsdale to be the dark horse in the race. Olivet and Adrian are weak.

So far, Albion defeated Hope, 3-0 in a closely fought battle, each team collecting eight first downs. In last Saturday's tests, Kalamazoo beat Adrian, 45-0, and Hillsdale set down Olivet, 32-7.

This week, the conference swings into its second week Friday and Saturday. Albion meets Alma at Alma Friday night. Kalamazoo will face Olivet at Kalamazoo Friday night, and Hillsdale will tackle Adrian Saturday.

W.A.A. Board Announces Inclusive Sport Program

At a meeting held in Voorhees hall Tuesday night, the Board of the Women's Athletic Association made general plans for another year of athletic activity for the co-eds on Hope's campus. Plans have been made for the organization of a hiking group which will hike to places of interest once a week, and within the next few weeks an all-college skating party will be held.

Basketball, swimming and bowling are activities which will come later in this athletic program which is to include every girl in school. The board also voted that each girl who participates in this program must present a doctor's certificate of examination.

Hope and Junior Meet in Red-Hot Grid Tilt Friday

Name Lineups for Scrap Under Lights Here at Riverview Park

There will be a hot time in the old town Friday night!

Grand Rapids Junior college and Hope are meeting in another chapter of long standing gridiron rivalry, and according to the best of indications the Battle of Bull Run wouldn't hold a candle to the scrap that's going to take place.

The teams are scheduled to meet under the lights at Riverview Park next Friday night at 8 p. m. The contest will be Hope's last non-association affair this season.

Grand Rapids Junior, this year, boasts of one of the best teams in the school's history, and fans here can bet that nothing will go wrong with their attack on the local gridiron. On the other hand, Hope feels capable of meeting some pretty tough competition, and the stubborn Dutchmen are expecting to stage one of the best games of the season here Friday.

What has set the stage for this outstanding bit of rivalry is a long series of Hope victories over the Grand Rapids outfit. Junior has not beaten Hope in football since Coach Bud Hinga came here from Holland high school seven years ago. In any time before that, Junior was able to count but three victories.

This year Junior college feels capable. Coaches Mike Steele and Johnny Regezci have whipped a fast and heavy squad into good early season shape, and the eleven already has counted a win over an M.I.A.A. aggregation by beating Olivet, 27-6, in the opening tussle.

In preparation for this outfit which outweighs them in every position, Hope last Monday got several new plays, and went through an afternoon of light signal practice. Tuesday the boys got in some rough work, and today the team will begin to taper off for the contest.

Hope's lineup will find Captain Mill DeGroot at center with Bob Wishmeier and Bob Powers probably getting the call as guards. Dent Norlin and Elmer Ridenour will play the tackles, and Ken Honholt and Cornie Pape will line up at the ends.

A shoulder injury, received in the Albion game, may keep Paul Boyink out of the game Friday night. A possible shift in the backfield positions might move Bob Marcus to half, and put Art Kronemeyer in the fullback post. Another move would put George Heneveld at half and leave Marcus at full. Lee Brannock will play one half, and Bob Vander Laan will play quarter back.

Hope is anxious to send the strong Junior outfit back to Grand Rapids on the short end of the score. Hope defeated Junior, 14-0 last year.

A bonfire and pep meeting in Grand Rapids will prepare a crowd of more than 600 enthusiastic Grand Rapids rooters for the contest. They will all be in the stands when the teams trot onto the field here next Friday night.

Hope meets Junior in the last of the first series of home games. The Dutch travel to Adrian next week in the first daylight game of the season.
